

THE WEATHER IN RICHMOND

Rapid Changes in the Temperature From Cold to Warm and Back Again.

WEATHER BUREAU REPORTS

Statement Showing the Conditions in February During Past Six Years—Meteorological.

Alternate waves of temperature, warm and cold, are passing over Richmond. It seems, and the snow moving now heaps melt and then freeze into ice and then begin to melt again. At 8 o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer stood at 9 degrees, which is even with the lowest record of the city. Monday night was one of the most bitter of the winter. During yesterday, however, the temperature rose rapidly and at 9 o'clock last night the thermometer was 41 degrees and the mercury still rising. To-day it will be cold again, but the sky will be clear.

James River was frozen over yesterday morning, and the Old Dominion steamer Berkeley, from Norfolk, had to break her way through the ice. The city spent a considerable portion of the early morning cutting the ice away. Some of the ponds around the city were frozen over, but the ice was rough and there was not much skating.

AT THE ACADEMY.

Shubert, Nixon and Zimmerman will present the Jefferson De Angelis Opera Company Saturday, matinee and night. The company, which has been Americanized from George Edwards's London company, and it has been received everywhere with much enthusiasm and appreciation. Jefferson De Angelis, in the role of Samson, has been given the most delightful impersonations given thus far by him. It is a perfect fit to his unique humor and quaint methods of producing comedy. Edgar Norton, as Sir Archer Slackett, has made a hit of the most pronounced kind. Margaret McLaughlin, as the Countess, is a fact. The company, which is said to be exceptionally strong, are all seen to splendid advantage, especially in the play, "The Blue Bird," by Maurice Maeterlinck. John Dudley, Adine Bouvier and Edward Metcalfe.

"For His Brother's Crime."

Packed, rammed and jammed yesterday was the Bijou Theatre to see the production of the play "For His Brother's Crime." The largest crowd for any Tuesday matinee in the history of the theatre has been made by the receipts at the box office. The crowd entered the play from the rise of the curtain to the last act, there was a testimony to the popularity of the play, and the applause was deafening at times.

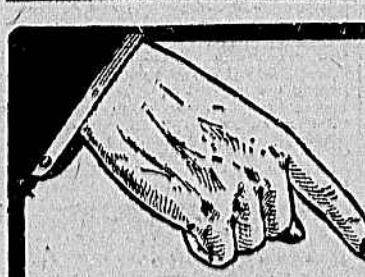

The sale of seats for the engagements has been large, indicating full houses the remainder of the week. The play will be presented nightly, with matinees Thursday and Saturday.

AT THE ACADEMY.

Robert E. Graham, for many years a favorite in comic opera and musical comedy, will appear in the play "Cyrus Gilpin" in "Floradora" during the engagement of Phisher and Ryland's New York Company at the Academy to-morrow, matinee and night. Mr. Graham originated the role in this country, and has already given over 1,200 performances of it. He has done a great many things during his career to invite favorable criticism, but nothing has given him the widespread popularity gained by his portrayal of the millionaire perfume manufacturer.

"A Friend of the Family"

The attraction at the Academy Friday night is the musical comedy called "A Friend of the Family," which is now to American theatre-goers, but which has been produced in nearly every other nation on the face of the globe. It was adapted for the American stage by Ralph M. Egan and Frank Burchill, Jr., nearly two years ago, but owing to a hot legal fight as to who possessed the American rights to the play, it has not been given in American presentation until this season. In addition to an exceptionally large and well-balanced cast, the production of the Murray Hill Stock Company, New York City, and George W. Barnum, who is with the company by permission of David Belasco, Manager of W. E. Gorman has secured the most gorgeous scenic display ever given a legitimate comedy.

"The Toreador."

Shubert, Nixon and Zimmerman will present the Jefferson De Angelis Opera Company Saturday, matinee and night. The company, which has been Americanized from George Edwards's London company, and it has been received everywhere with much enthusiasm and appreciation. PETERS WON

IN LEG SUIT

Federal Court of Appeals Reverses Lower Court in This Local Patent Case.

OTHER CASES DECIDED

The District Court Sustained in a Local Admiralty Case. Cases Argued.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit convened yesterday at 10 o'clock M. to hold its February term. The following judges were in attendance: Hon. Charles H. Simonton, United States circuit judge, Charleston, S. C.; Hon. James E. Boyd, United States district judge, Greensboro, N. C.; and Hon. Benjamin F. Keller, United States district judge, Bramwell, W. Va.

The most important decision of a local nature handed down by the court was that in the case of the administrators of Ulysses L. Robbins and Elvin Randall, deceased, against the Steamship "Charlotte," of the York River line. The two decedents were drowned as the result of a collision between the "Charlotte" and the schooner "Anna M. Harris" in York River, near West Point. The lower court found that the collision was the result wholly of the fault of the "Charlotte," and gave damages of $1,000 to Robbins and $800 to Randall. This court sustains the decision of the lower court.

WOODEN LEG CASE REVERSED.

In the case of A. L. Peters, plaintiff in error, vs. James E. Hanger, defendant in error, from the Circuit Court at Richmond, Va., the plaintiff, Hanger, brought an action in the court below for damages to his leg against Peters, defendant, because of the infringement of his patent rights. The plaintiff, in stating his cause of action, alleged that the infringement complained of occurred since 11th of October, 1896, and before the 30th of October, 1902. After the conclusion of the testimony, the court ordered that the jury be directed to find for the plaintiff on all claims 1 and 2 of the Hanger patent, inasmuch as no act of infringement had been proved during six years preceding the date of the filing of this suit, they must find for the defendant. This was refused, Judge Simonton, speaking for the court, said: "We have carefully examined the evidence, which is in the record, and have failed to discover any evidence showing the date that any infringement of the patent was made by the defendant below. If, indeed, any infringement was, it was made by the defendant below, but nothing to show any act within six years before the suit was brought. The defendant pleaded the general issue, and did not plead the statute. We are of the opinion that the plea of the statute was not necessary in this case." The refusal of the court to instruct the jury was reversed and remanded, with directions to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial.

SUMMARY OF PROCEEDINGS.

The court announced and gave down its opinion in the following cases:
George O. Robinson, appellant, vs. Suburban Brick Company, appellee, appeal from the Circuit Court at Wheeling, W. Va. Opinion by Judge Simonton. Affirmed, with costs.
Florence Brown, charged $5 for cursing and abusing W. C. Saunders. Charles Lavinder got six months on the charge of taking a lot of wearing apparel from Mary Jones.
William Murray, alias "Chick," went down for four months as a suspicious character.
Tom Payne was sent down for fifteen days for taking a lot of coal from the Chesapeake and Ohio.

Charles Lavinder got six months on the charge of taking a lot of wearing apparel from Mary Jones.
William Murray, alias "Chick," went down for four months as a suspicious character.

OWNERLESS SAND-BAG.

Mr. J. W. Russell Found One in His Pocket and Was Fined.

Despite the vigilance of the police, there is, probably, sand-bagger in town. If there is such a person here he is now said his sandbag, for it was taken from a well-meaning farmer from Henry county, named J. W. Russell.

Mr. Russell entered the city with the best of intentions. He had $50 and a desire to see something of the city. Somebody told him where he could see the sights, and later in the night he went into the First Police Station and tried to explain that he had been robbed in a house in lower Franklin Street.

This officer in the house had some doubts and helped Mr. Russell to go through his clothes. The money was not there, but a mulberry street sandbag was there. Mr. Russell protested that he didn't know the sandbag was in his pocket, and that he didn't know what a sandbag was used for. He said he was looking for a sandbag for his horse.

He had to be charged with carrying a concealed weapon, however, and the police scoured around to the house where he said the robbery took place. A thorough search revealed no one with the earmarks of a sand-bagger, and in the Police Court yesterday morning Mr. Russell was assessed $20 for carrying a concealed weapon. He produced reputable citizens to show he, himself, was reputable and law-abiding, and he was given time to get the amount of the fine.

In the meantime the police are looking for the robber.

Mr. Thacker Better.

Mr. H. A. Thacker, the well known railroad man, who was successfully operated on at the Virginia Hospital, is much better and is now at his home, No. 10 South Belvidere Street.

Suit Instituted.

Mrs. Eliza E. Wheeler has instituted suit in the City Circuit Court against Miller & Edwards and Edward C. Drinkwater for $100.00 for alleged unwarranted detention.
